

Blossoming in the Spring!

Apple trees blossom later in the Spring.. It's important that they don't experience freezing temperatures after the blossoms start.

The leaves sprout from the buds, and soon the flower buds appear. They bloom in a group. Each group has 5 blossoms, and each blossom has 5 petals. They start out pink and gradually fade to white. Their sweet smell and color attract bees.